

MYP NEWSLETTER: 2024-2025

At Manchester we provide a dynamic educational environment, by encouraging excellence. All students are challenged to reach their maximum potential by learning at their functional level to provide a solid foundation of skills, knowledge and values. This foundation enables each student to become a well-educated, productive adult who will be able to cope with an ever-changing world.

World Day Against Child Labour - Intramural Competition Visual Arts

On the ‘World Day against Child Labour’, the MYP Students embodied righteousness and integrity, as they voiced out against child labor through a splash of color. At Manchester, this pivotal day was commemorated on June 12th, through a visual arts intramural.

In this experiential activity, students thoroughly investigated connections between child labor and sustainable development goals like ‘No Poverty’, ‘Good Health and Well Being’, and ‘Quality Education’. Based on which, they passionately painted their ideas of rectitude and vast perspectives. Therefore, each stroke on their canvas was a thoughtful step, for awareness and meaningful change!

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF YOGA

The International Day of Yoga was celebrated on June 21st, and aimed to spread awareness about the benefits of yoga and promote its holistic approach to health and wellness. On this sensational occasion, the students of MYP came together to show their commitment to healthy lifestyle choices. They exhibited this by participating in a yoga session in the sports arena. In this paramount event: students enthusiastically learned various yoga poses, advanced students showcased a captivating performance, and captured the significance by demonstrating numerous poses to help younger children understand the purpose of yoga.

WORLD MUSIC DAY

On June 21, we commemorated World Music Day, a tribute to the universal language that connects people across time and culture. To mark this spectacular day, the students assembled in the auditorium to appreciate the history of music, from ancient rhythms to present-day popular tunes. We explored how music is more than just a hobby—and how it is a powerful form of expression that conveys words through tunes. .

The celebration continued as teachers and students showcased their melodious voices, sharing their passion for music with us all. Together, they reflected on how music unites us, creating bonds that transcend language and background.

THREE - WAY CONFERENCE

The three-way conference was a significant and productive event. It successfully engaged parents, students and teachers in meaningful discussions about academic progress and personal development. The feedback was largely positive, and the collaborative goal-setting process was effective. We look forward to building on this foundation and seeing continued progress in the students' educational journeys. The event reinforced the importance of a strong partnership between home and school to support each student's growth and success.

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF FRIENDSHIP

On the International Day of Friendship, the MYP Students celebrated their unity by crafting friendship trees filled with heartfelt notes, creating vibrant posters, and sharing each others' cultural cuisines through recipes. This connected the students in the spirit of joy and harmony! In addition, as part of our Service as Action, students stretched their hands of gratitude and empathy, to young cancer patients in the PSG Institute of Oncology. As a collective community, the students took the initiative to donate books, stationary, and toys, spreading warmth and compassion to children in pain. This activity extended friendship among many people, and showed them they are not alone as we care for their happiness. Since it was a hands-on experience, the MYP Students came together as a community, while realizing that their small acts of kindness can have a significant impact on children facing hardships. To sum it up, this event gave valuable insight into actions of empathy and kindness.

WORLD YOUTH DAY

On August 12th, the MYP students were given the opportunity to empower the next generation of youth. Throughout the enthusiastic corridor, students' dedicated spirit and ingenious contributions resonated. It consisted of a creative website containing blogs, posters, and speeches on different subjects of global concern. Moreover, we were graced by Ms. Abirami Aiyer to share her perspectives on creating peaceful futures. To achieve the same, she educated us on peace, conflict, and negotiation through fun-filled, interactive discussions. This resulted in positively shaping young, sharp minds!

JANMASHTAMI

On August 23, the MYP Students came together to celebrate Janmashtami (also known as Krishna Jayanthi). On this day, there were a vast array of activities to commemorate this occasion. Firstly, through the beauty of visual arts, various groups of students painted vibrant pots with meaningful symbols of harmony, and crafted creative rangolis to symbolize Lord Krishna's story. Afterwards, spirited individuals set the mood with their graceful dances and cherished the happenings of the Mahabharata through their monologues of different characters. Lastly, the display of posters caught the attention of everyone! This day thoroughly reflected our students' embracing culture with pride, creativity, and happiness.

MYP-5 E-ASSESSMENT ORIENTATION

MYP 5 eAssessment Orientation which was held on 6th September 2024 offered parents a unique perspective on this significant milestone, providing insights directly from the students' experiences and understanding. This orientation clearly led by the students themselves made parents feel more connected and reassured which play a key role in evaluating students' proficiency across the Middle Years Program. There was the question/answer round where parents were encouraged to ask questions directly to student presenters for a more engaging and interactive session. The session ended with final words of encouragement for both students and parents, emphasizing the value of this assessment in preparing students for the future. By allowing students to lead the orientation, parents gained a firsthand look at their children's engagement and preparedness, fostering confidence in the process and the skills their children are developing.

ONAM CELEBRATION

Onam Celebrations (conducted on September 13th) was a pompous event, where students were granted the privilege to wear traditional clothing to appreciate Kerala's culture. This astonishing day commenced with an opportunity to participate in a thrilling and challenging Pookalam Intramural Competition. In addition, students were also engaged in intriguing activities such as poster making and wall-magazine creations. The perfect embellishment to this day was the delectable and scrumptious Onam Sadhya. This initiative paved ways for MYP to explore the varied traditions of Onam. Overall, it was a fun-filled day.

The Interhouse Pookalam Competition

WORLD TOURISM DAY

World Tourism Day was celebrated lavishly in MYP! This day was taken as the road of inspiration, driving students to their dreams. On September 26, students got the opportunity to participate by exploring many tourist locations and their respective specialties. All the classes of MYP had diverse activities to show their curiosity and open-mindedness. A few of the more predominant activities included group stalls, travel plan itineraries, postcard making, and exhibitions. They explored vast culture, geographical significance and an abundant measure of interactive reflections. World Tourism Day was an unforgettable day for the students of MYP!

INTERNATIONAL LITERACY DAY

On the 6th of September, the students of MYP, commemorated the power of literacy. There is an urgent need to harness transformative potential within societies and individuals. To attain this, the students promoted multilingual education for peace, social cohesion, and mutual understanding. To carouse this day, there was a public-speaking intramural held, categorized into two sections. Each section revolved around a different subjective topic such as AI influence on writing, imaginative author perspectives, etc. Through this competition, students meticulously reflected on global literacy as a critical factor in improving people's lives and creating more equitable societies for all.

WORLD PEACE DAY

For Manchester, World Peace Day was the point of time to promote calmness and non-violence. As the world rises with geopolitical tensions, protracted conflicts, and a drastic decline in teen well-being, World Peace Day was given primal importance by the MYP Students. On September 21, the students' main goal was to cultivate a culture of peace. This emphasized on situational thinking and spreading global awareness on issues like bullying, AI Empowerment, teen anxiety, and the importance of breaking stereotypes. Each MYP class took various initiatives such as creating interesting stories, vibrant posters, meaningful speeches and educational poems. By taking part in these activities, the students came together in unity, replacing division, disempowerment, and despair with justice, equality and hope. This ultimately led to propelling the SDGs; constructing healthy and mindful societies.

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF SIGN LANGUAGE

On the 30th of September, the students of MYP actively participated in International Day of Sign Language. This day recognizes the importance of preserving sign languages as part of linguistic and cultural diversity. On this momentous day, the students of MYP came together to develop posters, comic strips, stories implementing sign language and recreating a game of bingo including sign language gestures. To sum it up, all the students had an amusing yet contemplative experience.

TEACHERS DAY

This year's Teacher's Day was a fun-filled and memorable event, with MYP 4 students leading the way. Inspired by the game show "Jeopardy". They created an interactive quiz with questions on subjects like General Knowledge and Sports. The celebration also featured exciting games like "Guess the Picture" and a heartfelt video presentation, where students expressed their gratitude and best wishes to the teachers. The teachers joined in the spirit by showcasing their own talents, and a vibrant dress code added to the festive atmosphere. Students took the opportunity to formally felicitate their teachers, celebrating their dedication and hard work. It was a day of laughter, appreciation, and unity, making the moment truly special.

GANESH CHATURTHI

Ganesh Chaturthi was feted on September 7. The festivities inspired students to utilize wisdom in order to remove obstacles. In their vibrant traditional attire, the children participated in manifold competitions, being the Ganesh Puppet and Mask Making Competition, where they precisely hand-modeled innovative puppets and masks of Ganesh. They also indulged in a creative, compelling story-telling competition of significant events in Lord Ganesh's life. In conclusion, the MYP Students engaged in culturally diverse activities.

ANNUAL DAY

The annual day took place on the 9th of October. It was a jubilation where all the students got to showcase their special talents through singing, dancing or by playing musical instruments. The students had 2 months of rigorous practice prior to the annual day where they exhibited their full commitment to render their exemplary and illustrious presentation. The students were designated an SDG goal through which their performances were based, thus bringing out the core concept of sustainability through their ecstatic programme. There were roughly around 40 performances the whole day. The students were dazzling in their vibrant costumes. They put up a tremendous show for their parents and everyone reveled in the festivities!

WORLD COTTON DAY

The students of the middle year programme engaged in competitive and exhilarating visual arts intramurals to commemorate World Cotton Day. The Students immersed themselves in passionately designing an infographic poster to augment sustainability. This sparked students curiosity, utilizing their ingenious skills and unleashing their creativity through synergistic collaboration. The theme designated for the occasion was "Megatrends Shaping Cotton Textile Value Chain" with an aim to promote the cotton textile industry and its contribution to the economy. This theme emphasized the positive impact of cotton on various aspects of life. This served as an opportunity to highlight the role of cotton in creating jobs and maintaining economic stability in cotton-producing countries, particularly in developing countries. The students were deeply enriched by the vivid displays and gained a resounding appreciation and admiration for cotton at the end of this occasion.

DIWALI CELEBRATION

On October 30th, our school celebrated cultural heritage with a special event where students wore traditional outfits, showcasing their unique festivities. The auditorium came alive with vibrant performances, allowing students to express their traditions through various events.

A key part of the event was raising awareness about safety during Diwali. A mime performance demonstrated how to stay safe while enjoying fireworks, highlighting the importance of caution. Additionally, students engaged in a debate on the environmental impact of fireworks, discussing environmental issues like pollution and noise. The debate encouraged everyone to think about how we can enjoy our traditions while protecting the environment. It was a day filled with cultural pride, reflection, and important lessons on safety and sustainability.
